Desire Riviera Maya Resort

Desire Riviera Maya Resort is a sultry, adults only (21+) all-inclusive couples-only retreat in Puerto Morelos on Mexico's Riviera Maya, and a sister concept to Temptation Cancun Resort with the key difference being Desire Riviera Maya having designated spaces for public sex.

At Desire Riviera Maya, every detail caters to couples looking to unwind, bond, and explore together. Accommodations range from elegantly styled king bed rooms with garden, pool or ocean views to more luxurious suites with panoramic Caribbean vistas and thoughtful touches that enhance your romantic escape. Spacious balconies or terraces set the scene for intimate moments, while stylish interiors blend comfort with sophisticated design.

Dining here is part of the adventure. The resort's culinary offerings include international and gourmet experiences, including the signature Sahló Restaurant, where aphrodisiac inspired dishes and fine wines are crafted to ignite the senses and complement the resort's sensual atmosphere. Lounges and bars, including the Jacuzzi Lounge Bar, serve cocktails throughout the day and night, ensuring food and beverages are part of the all-inclusive experience.

One of the signature aspects that sets Desire apart from Temptation Cancun is its clothing-optional philosophy. Nude sunbathing and au naturel freedom are embraced in designated areas like the pools, beach, Jacuzzi Lounge, and Private Couples' Lounge, allowing guests to feel uninhibited and truly relaxed. However, intimate activities such as public sex are prohibited in open spaces like the beach or pool areas; these activities are only permitted in specific spaces such as the Jacuzzi Lounge and the Playroom, ensuring respect for all guests and clear boundaries around public behavior.

Entertainment at Desire Riviera Maya keeps the energy high with themed nights, live music, and events designed to bring couples together in playful, social ways. While the atmosphere encourages connection and flirtation, couples are always reminded to respect one another's comfort and consent.

Additionally, the resort features The Eden, an elevated, intimate enclave within Desire offering luxurious spaces for couples to deepen their connection in a more private, exclusive environment.

Whether you're reconnecting with your partner or exploring new adventures together, Desire Riviera Maya Resort delivers a bold, romantic getaway designed for fun, freedom, and unforgettable memories.
